Human Services

WCCC offers an Associate in Applied Science in Human Services. The Associate in Applied Science is a two-year program that prepares students for entry level careers in human services or to continue their education in the human services/behavioral sciences field. The program will provide opportunities for personal and professional growth through applied and classroom instruction, community involvement, and practical experience under direct supervision of professionals in local agencies. Upon completion of the program, graduates are eligible for their Mental Health Rehabilitation Technician Certificate (MHRT/Community) and to apply for Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (CADC) certification testing eligibility.

Program Learning Outcomes: Upon completion of the Associate in Applied Science degree in Human Services the graduate is prepared to:

- Demonstrate knowledge of the human services professions, its history and structures, and the implications of social policy on the helping professions.
- Exercise effective interpersonal communications techniques when dealing with diverse populations.
- Understand and demonstrate basic counseling skills and group communication techniques.
- Exercise professional ethics in all matters pertaining to the helping relationship and the workplace.
- Exhibit professional conduct in a human services organization including legal and ethical responsibilities and demonstrated understanding of roles and boundaries.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the formal and informal support systems in the community. Show an understanding of, and skill at, accessing available resources.
- Collaborate with other treatment team members from a variety of disciplines and perspective in the treatment of individuals, families, and other groups.
- Demonstrate awareness faced by individuals with psychological, social or economic challenges with regard to human rights, access to services, financial strain, and social stigma.
- Establish and engage in a process of continued personal and professional growth in order to remain personally healthy and professionally competent.

The Human Services program requires completion of the Student Disclosure of Criminal Convictions, Pending Criminal Charges and Certain Disqualifications. Completion of this form does not automatically deny admission to the program. Prospective applicants will meet with the Dean of Enrollment Management and Student Services to review information. The form can be found at wccc.me.edu/admissions-aid/admissions/admission-forms-documents.
